Another Strange Work.—Something
wonderful is always happening in Siskiyou.
The Yreka Journal of the 13th inst., relates
as follows:
An immense slide of gravel descended
last week from the top of the mountain south of Deadwood Creek, damming up the creek sufficient to create a reservoir sixty feet deep. The slide came in a solid body, slipping along on a slippery clay formation, upon which the whole mountain rests. The slide traveled a distance of about a quarter of a mile, and held together so compact that it even moved the stumps and logs out of the creek without damaging them. It is supposed that the slide was started by the drifting underneath in Steele & Wamock's claim, together with the late heavy rains.

Advice to Young Men.—You man, run
your arm into an adder's den, place a rattle snake in your bosom, chew the hell out of him, but leave the bottle alone. Though the liquor may glow like molten rubies, though its beads sparkle like diamonds in amber, though the gods may have drunk it, and poets have sung of it in immortal verse, though its aroma may be pleasant as the spice kissing breezes of Araby the Blest, yet avoid it as you would the spotted lep-rosy. Its red and diamond and amber lines are the false lights of the soul's wreckers,
and its sweet aroma is the breath of a symphony who will surely allure you to destruction.
Each drop contains a devil, in drinking you quaff the fires of hell. Avoid ye the boal, if ye would not perish.

The Virginia Enterprise, of May 9th, relates the following:
Last evening, about ten o'clock, E. F.
Glover, of American Flat, and formerly Assemblyman from Storey county, committed suicide at the Talbot House, by shooting himself through the head with a derringer.
He had three deringers. One (discharged) lay on the bed beside him, and two loaded ones on a chair beside the bed. He left a note addressed to Judge Aldrich, which reads as follows: "I am about to start on a journey to that bourne from which no traveler ever returns. Cause, woman! So goodbye. E. F. Glover."

PRINTERS AND DOCTORS.—An eastern paper justly comments on newspaper and medical accounts.
It is a notorious fact that doctors and newspaper bills are the last accounts in the sum of almost every man's indebtedness which he thinks of paying, whatever may be his ability to pay; no difference if his chest is filled with old rusty dollars, he thinks some indefinite time will do to settle the aforesaid account. People somehow have a traditional notion that the practice of physic and the publishing of newspapers are more mature professions, followed for amusement's sake, and for the cost of which little or nothing is expended. Yet there is not in the whole round of business, as far as we know, a more expensive employment
than that of a newspaper.

You've tried.—During a recent trial at Autumn, the following occurred to vary the monotony of the proceedings: "Among the witnesses was one, as veridical a specimen of humanity as one would wish to meet with.
After a severe cross examination, the counsel for the government passed d. and then putting on a look of severity, and an ominous shade of the forehead, exclaimed: 'Mr.
Witness, has not an effort been made to induce you to tell a different story?' 'A different story from what I have told, sir?' 'That's what I mean.' 'Yes, sir; several persons have tried to get me to tell a different story from what I have told, but they couldn't.' 'Now, sir, upon your oath, I wish to know who those persons are.' 'Well, I guess you've tried 'bout as hard as any of them.'

I Saw Her and a Man.—She wore a handsome crinoline on the day when first we met, and she studded like a schooner with a cloud of canvass set. As she swept along the pavement with a grandeur fit to kill, I saw her but a moment, yet methinks
I see her still.

The wind was on a bend, and as saucy
as a witch, and it played the very dickens with dust, dimity and silk. The gaiters were most bonny which her feet were made to fill, I saw her but a moment, and methinks
I see her still.

She scooted around the corner, and steaming out behind her crinoline and calico were romping in the wind. To have kept them in position would have baffled twice her skill, I saw her but a moment,
and methinks I see her still.

I shut my eyes tremulous quick, for I did not want to see a display of pretty ankles,
when it wasn't meant for me; and until I saw my senses, I'm sure I never will—I saw her but a moment, yet methinks I see her still.

It is proposed to hold a National Convention in Baltimore in December next, to take steps to secure the passage of Eight Hours Laws in all the States, and for other purposes connected with the right of labor.

TO MARY

(For the Quincy Union.)

Call, call at the iceberg, that shining
Reflects its line form in the sea,
Or the gray autumn clouds on the wing,
I, the spirit that dwells in the air,
Affection's most passionate longing,
The deep thrilling pathos of song,
The words on the lips glow with life, thought,
To no part of the being below.

So cold is the lifeless body of man,
Yet in the heart's fire, a world of bliss,
(So burning in the life of the soul)
The reason that dwells in the mind,
The stars are gathered in the night,
Will be that the heart of the soul,
Unfettered with life's sweet chains,
Takes to the life of the soul.

No human love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true,
No love can ever be true.

QUINCY, PLUMAS CO., CAL.

SATURDAY, MAY 10, 1866.

WAGON ROAD MEETING.—The members of the Quincy & La Porte Wagon Road Company met at the Court House, in Quincy, on Wednesday the 10th inst. J. W. Thompson was elected Chairman and A. P. Moore, Secretary of the meeting. The first business in order was the election of officers of the Company. J. W. Thompson was elected President, Fred. Howard, Secretary, and S. Myers, Treasurer. The capital stock of the Company was fixed at $10,000, divided into 200 shares of $50 each. The period of the existence of the Company was fixed at twenty years. E. H. Pierce was appointed Agent to receive subscriptions to the capital stock of the Company, and to open books for such purpose. Jonas S. Carter was elected Engineer and Surveyor for the Company. The declaration and certificate of organization was signed and ordered filed in the Recorder's Office. Meeting adjourned to meet again on the 26th inst.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.—By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that our neighbors over the ridge, at Taylorville, intend celebrating the next anniversary of our National Independence on the 4th of July. "Creed Haymond Esq. of La Porte will deliver an oration, and the Declaration will be read by A. J. Gifford Esq. of Taylorville. It is a day on which all political prejudices should be dropped; all should unite to celebrate the return of the brightest day in the American calendar. It is our National day of birth, and should be and will be welcomed with shouts of joy.

The reputation of Mr. Haymond is such as to warrant an oration of interest; the Reader has been well selected; a good Band will be in attendance, and our friends over there promise a cordial welcome to all who may attend.

There will not, probably, be any other celebration of the day in this county; so let every one turn out; come from the hill sides and valleys, from ranches and mines, and prove our hearts warm in love for the old Flag and Country.

NORTHERN DISTRICT FAIR.

The presence of Mr. G. N. Swezy, President of the Northern District Agricultural Society, in our town this week, reminds us that the Society's Fair will be held at Marysville, commencing on the 5th of September. Their exhibition last year, under the efficient management of the officers, was a decided success, and we doubt not that it will be equally so this.

Every facility will be extended to exhibitors from this county, and we urge upon our citizens the importance of a proper display thereof of specimens of our mineral wealth. Cabinets of minerals, gold and copper bearing rock from the different ledges in our county, and pigs of copper from our furnaces, will, at Marysville, attract much more attention than at our own fairs, and be instrumental in calling the attention of the press, and through the press, of capitalists, to our inexhaustible mineral wealth, and do much toward the advancement of Plumas county to the position she is destined to occupy—that of the first mining county in the State.

Again, not the least attractive feature of the exhibition will be the contest by lady equestrians for the Society's premiums. In this contest we hope to see our county represented, and doubt not that the beauty and skill of our fair ones will receive the praise it has hitherto merited and received at our own fairs. Will not our lady friends prepare and enter the lists? If they will do so, we shall confidently hope to have the pleasure of announcing their success.

We earnestly trust that our citizens will properly appreciate the importance to our county of the exhibition at the Northern District Fair of specimens of our mineral wealth, and that they will earnestly labor to make the department assigned to exhibitors from Plumas County one of the most attractive in the exhibition.

NEW BOOKS.

Mr. O. H. Elliott, Agent for Hurlbut, Williams & Co., and Lockwood, Case & Co., Publishers, has placed on our table six books. Of course, we do not expect on such short notice to give more than a partial review of the contents, but as Mr. Elliott is canvassing this portion of the State for the works, we have looked into them, more for the purpose of drawing the attention of our readers in this vicinity to the fact, than from any view of criticism.

"The Cottage Cyclopaedia."

Such is the title of a compact work of 1000 pages, in one volume, treating (and ably, too,) on almost every known subject. The facts and figures are condensed, yet not so much as to prevent giving a full insight into the several subjects. Some of the subjects are treated with great precision and luminosity, and one can acquire more information in a few minutes by this book, than he could in months, some years since although he had the advantage of a good library.

Here, where the limits of literature are bounded, where an enquiring mind can glean but little outside of a few standard works, such a work must prove itself invaluable, and it should be on every center-table, and in every house in the community.

"History of California."

A book addressing itself to almost every person who has adopted California as a home. It gives a long history of the discovery, the Jesuit missions, the land titles, the mines and a statement of the manner of their discovery, and a considerable portion is given to our internal political and other history, bringing it down to the election of Governor Low. The chapters devoted to the Vigilance Committee, are perhaps too long, but notwithstanding that, we believe it to be a truthful history, with but a very few inaccuracies.

It is a valuable work for a pioneer, or one who would know what hardships the forty-niners went through.

It is edited by Tutthill, in one volume, and has over 650 pages.

Kettell's History of the Great Rebellion.

This is truly a good work. It is not a one-sided history, but is a fair compendium of the great events which have justly caused the late civil war to be designated as the Great Rebellion. It does not spend so much surface in proving the causes of the war as "Greely's Conflict" does, but the author plunges at once into the war as an existing fact. From our cursory examination we found it full of facts, which we did not know could be proven elsewhere outside of the department. As many questions of dispute will necessarily arise, we recommend all who would be thoroughly posted to add Kettell's History.

Holland's Life of Lincoln.

We have not given this work as close an examination as the great dead deserve. We have heard and read a number of commendations however, and all agree that this work comes nearer picturing Lincoln as he truly was, and as history will view him, than any other ever given to the world. We read only one chapter, and it brought vividly to our mind a pleasant summer day in Illinois, when thousands gathered to hear the "battle of the giants." Every Union man should secure a copy, and every one who is not a Union man, or a member of the Union party, should read it and thus learn that Abraham Lincoln was not a "barbarous ape" or "cruel tyrant" but a calm, self-poised, upright and just man, who unwittingly gained immortality, by dying in a holy cause.

Eighty Years' Progress.

Is the title of a complete synopsis of American advancement for the eighty years preceding 1861. Our arts, agriculture, mechanics, literature, and in fact every branch of industry and the higher arts, are treated in full, and this volume is an absolute compendium of American material history during those momentous years following the Revolution and preceding the rebellion.

The Book of Anecdotes and Incidents of the Rebellion.

Of this work we have but little room to speak. It is a splendidly illustrated book; short, spicy sketches of our representative men and women, and is very interesting, as it embraces the "most brilliant and remarkable anecdotal events in the great conflict," including all subjects, heroic, patriotic, political, romantic, humorous and tragical, with hospital scenes, private experience, and "famous words of famous women."

Mr. Elliott will take the names of any of our citizens who may wish to subscribe, and as the works are to be received before payment, and knowing that money invested in good books is a paying outlay, we hope every person, no matter how poor he may be, will find means enough to buy at least one of the books. They are worth the money, and a good book is like a baby in the house, a never ceasing well-spring of pleasure and interest.

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

May 15th, 1866.

The people vs. J. R. McVay: Defendant pleaded not guilty to the charge set forth in the indictment. The cause set for trial on Wednesday next, the 23d inst. A venire of 30 jurors ordered returnable at that time.

Stockholm vs. Hough & Bro.: Appellee moved for J. P. Court. Motion to dismiss denied by the Court. Trial of the cause set for the 6th day of June next. Jury demanded by parties.

PROBATE.—W. Waldraven appointed Administrator of the Estate of J. P. Boylan, deceased. W. Stagg, T. J. True and F. M. Hopkins appointed appraisers of said estate. Decree of discharge made and entered in the meter of the Estate of A. Grimaux, deceased.

ALL RIGHT.—The Appeal has been forced to come the "dignity dodge" on us. Satisfactory.

FINAL REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

STATE OF CALIFORNIA.
County of Plumas.
In County Court, May Term, 1866.

To THE HON. THE COUNTY COURT IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF PLUMAS:

We, the Grand Jurors, impaneled and sworn at the regular May Term of said County Court, respectfully submit the following report:

We have inquired into all offences which have come to our knowledge, and, as the result thereof, have found two true Bills of Indictment, to wit:

One for an Assault with intent to commit Murder; and one for Exhibiting a Deadly Weapon in the presence of two or more persons in a rude, angry, and threatening manner.

We would further report, that we have examined the County Jail and other public buildings, and find them in good order.

We would further report, that owing to the time it would necessarily consume to make a thorough examination of the books, records and accounts of the County Officers, and the great expense attending such an examination by the Grand Jury, we have made but a hasty examination of said books &c. at this Session, and so far as our examination went, we find them to be correct, and kept in a systematic and business-like manner.

At the same time, we would recommend that the Board of Supervisors, at their next regular meeting, appoint some competent person or persons to make a thorough examination of the accounts of all the County Officers.

The Grand Jury, in making their report, would suggest that the Tax Collector of the County inform the District Attorney of all Merchandise, Liquor, Billiard and other Licenses unpaid at the end of each month, and that the District Attorney, thereupon, proceed to collect the same from such parties, who are delinquent, in a manner most advantageous to the County.

We would hereby tender our thanks to the Hon. Court, the District Attorney, Sheriff, and other officers of the County, for their courtesy during the present Session.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. W. THOMPSON,
Foreman of the Grand Jury.

W. W. KELLOGG, Clerk.

PERSONAL.—Hon. W. T. Sexton, our District Judge, has been holding Court in our town the past week. As a jurist, the Judge stands re-eminent; as a man, he has not an enemy; while our lawyers all say that we have the best Judge of any District in this State. Prompt in the discharge of his duties, genial and kind in his intercourse, it is no wonder he is popular; and while his decisions must hurt somebody, sometimes, yet all know that they are actuated by the sternest justice and the clearest convictions of law.

LOCAL ITEMS.

BALL.—See advertisement for a Fair to come off at La Porte on the 1st day of June next.

FIRE.—The hotel of Wilkins, at the Summit, was destroyed by fire some days since. Loss about $6,000.

BALL.—The Taylorville Cornet Band will give a Grand Ball at Taylorville, on the night of July 4th. The boys are deserving of, and will receive a rousing benefit.

FOR TRIAL.—The case of the People vs. McVay has been set for trial in the County Court for Wednesday next. A venire of 30 jurors has been issued, made returnable on that day.

REHEARING.—The attorneys for the contestant in the Sheriff election case in this county have filed a petition, or motion, for a rehearing of the same before the Supreme Court. So the matter is not yet settled.

GAVE BONDS.—On Thursday last, J. R. McVay gave bonds in the sum of $2,000 to appear for trial before the County Court on Wednesday next, and was discharged from the custody of the Sheriff.

AGENT.—We have appointed Mr. George W. Hodgkins our Agent at Taylorville. Hereafter, subscribers will find the Union at the Post-office. Mr. H. is authorized to receive subscriptions, and receipt for the same.

REGISTRY LAW.—The Registry Law went in to effect on the 18th inst., and as soon as the Clerk and Auditor receive the Registry books, they will commence registering the names of voters. We intend to publish the Registry Law in full in our next issue.

TOLL ROAD.—Thompson & Klogg have repaired the Spanish Ranch Toll Road, and it is now in splendid condition for travel. For the past three years they have expended more money in keeping that road in good order than they have received from toll.

ATTORNEYS.—The following gentlemen have been in attendance upon the District Court during the past week: G. N. Swartz, of Marysville; Peter Vancil, of Downsville; Greed Haymond, of La Porte; A. A. Cooper, and A. J. Gifford, of Taylorville, and Messrs. Buckner, Goodwin, Hogan, Gar, Van Deear and Haun, of Quincy.

POORMAN'S CREEK.—The lower portion of Poorman's Creek is in the possession of Chinamen; the head, or rather the North Fork, has some very good claims on it. Those of Riddle & Co. pay $3 per day to the land; two or three claims above them are being worked, paying nearly as well; the claims of Gentry & Co., directly below the town of Poorman's, are held at $1,500 per share; Moore & Co. have had good pay for the last few weeks in their tunnel claims, but they have not yet been able to prevent the working of the claims to a good advantage; Alex. Turner & Co. on the North Fork strike gravel in their tunnel two weeks ago; since then they have made from $12 to $15 per day to the land; the prospects for a continuation of good pay are as good as the ground is extensive; Thomas Nohman and Cox & Co. have good claims at the upper end of Big Flat, and are making from $8 to $10 per day to the land; The Last Chance Co. are also getting good pay.

NORTH STAR TUNNEL.—The "PRIME" CREEK—This enterprise was started in the year 1865, and has been carried on at intervals ever since. Two or three tunnels have been run by the Company, all but the last being of no value to them. In the last one, which was begun about three years since, and is about 2,000 feet in length, a deposit of gravel was found, prospecting well. After crossing this deposit, which is only considered an "outbreak" of the main lead, the Company struck bed rock again and have driven the tunnel in over two hundred feet. They expect, from the appearance of the rock in the tunnel, to strike gravel again within 80 feet. One prospect obtained in the "outbreak" of the claim is worth $150 to the ton.

In enterprises of this kind, where it takes years of hard work and a large amount of perseverance by the shareholders before they can realize anything for their time and labor, it is usually the case that but few if any of the original shareholders are able, if so disposed, to hold on to their interests. In the North Star Company, but one of the original locators (Mr. Norris) still owns an interest in the claims. Mr. N. has worked in the claims all of the time, and always with the same faith of ultimate success as he had on the first day he commenced work. We hope that he, as well as all connected with him, will realize a fortune from the North Star claim.

SUICIDE AT SAWPIT FLAT.—A correspondent sends us the following: "Mrs. Morron committed suicide at her residence at Sawpit Flat this (Wednesday) morning, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, cutting the arteries of both arms immediately above the elbows. The circumstances were as follows: Mrs. Morron had been sick for a long time but was supposed to be improving. She had been nursed and cared for by the ladies of Sawpit Flat. On Wednesday morning, in the absence of the attendant, she took her daughter, aged about 8 years, to bring her two pens and a razor. The little girl obeyed her request, and as soon as the articles were handed to her she told the girl to go into another room, close the door, and not let any one disturb her for half an hour, as she wanted to rest. One of the ladies who had been attending upon Mrs. M. went to the house a few moments after, and the little girl told her of her mother's request, and, as a matter of course, they did not go into the room for some time; but after a short time the attendant opened the door and found her body lying in a pool of blood, with each arm laid across a pen and the pens filled with blood. The razor was lying near by. The incisions in each arm were very large and reached the bones.

Mrs. Morron's husband left Sawpit about two years since for Idaho, where he now resides. By this sad fire five little children are left motherless and without any other strangers to care for them until their father returns.

Mrs. Morron has always had the reputation of being a good wife and mother and an exemplary woman, and it is supposed that she was laboring under a fit of temporary insanity at the time she committed suicide.

An inquest was held by Geo. Sturges, and the above facts were given at the time.

THREE.—It is reported that there are three sets of barrels at Sawpit, doing the citizens of this locality out of considerable cash by dealing to the music of old saw logs.

LICENSES.—On the first day of each month the Tax Collector will furnish the District Attorney with a list of all persons who are delinquent on County Licenses, and he will commence actions against them. Parties had better keep their licenses paid up and save costs.

ASSESSORS.—Mr. Theo. E. Weidenhold has received the appointment of Deputy County Assessor, and has entered upon the discharge of his duties. A better selection could not have been made. "Theo" is large to the energetic, goes ahead of a young man, and we will warrant that he will do his work well for the benefit of the county. Mr. Husted has also appointed Mr. J. M. Panfili, of La Porte, as Deputy Assessor to assess Goodwin Township.

SEATTLE.—We would call the attention of our readers to the card of J. D. Comp on County Surveyor, published in this paper. Mr. C. has appointed Mr. Arthur W. Kiddie Deputy County Surveyor, and all of the business of the office will be done under his supervision. Mr. Kiddie is one of the best surveyors in the State, and as a draughtsman he is not surpassed by any one. Mr. K. will devote his whole time to surveying and making maps, and parties wishing any surveying work will do well to entrust their work to him.

DEWEE.—On Thursday last, May 15th, Mr. Wm. H. Blood, of Indian Valley, was drowned in Indian Creek, a short distance below his residence. The circumstances are as follows: Mr. Blood was having a survey of his dam in the creek made to ascertain its height, &c. In making the survey it was necessary for him to cross the creek above the dam. He, in company with another man, got into a boat and had crossed over once; in attempting to cross back again the boat went too close to the dam, and the current was so swift and strong that it was impossible for them to land, or to prevent the boat from going over. The boat went over the dam without upsetting, but as soon as it struck the falls below it up and both of the men were thrown into the water. Mr. B. could not swim, but he succeeded in catching hold of the boat and was carried down the stream about 100 yards. It is probable that he was so injured by being thrown against the rocks by the current at his length that he lost his senses, and as soon as he got loose from the boat he sank. His body was found about 6 o'clock P. M., at the same place.
